Environmental Health Sanitarian
Dickinson-Iron District Health Department

The Dickinson-Iron District Health Department is seeking applicants for a full time (37.5 hours/week) Environmental Health Specialist for our Dickinson County Office. An individual must have a BS degree in Environmental Health, chemistry, biology, or related field is required. An individual must possess a valid driver license. The Environmental Health Specialist position provides consultation, inspection, and enforcement services for a broad range of environmental health programs. For application go to www.didhd.org. Applications must be received no later than June 19, 2020.